Along with college classmate Kevin McDonald (Kids In The Hall), Dan studied improv under the renowned Del Close.

Jenette Goldstein is a true chameleon. She is so effective as an actress, it is nearly impossible to recognize her from role to role. Her resume is a testament to her range and versatility: Vampy killer Diamondback in Near Dark (1987), good cop Meagan Shapiro in Lethal Weapon 2 (1989), Patti Jean Lynch in The Presidio (1988), Alice the Maid in a one-scene role in Fear and Loathing in Las Vegas (1998), and, of course, her iconic role as Lt. Vasquez in James Cameron's Aliens (1986) and Terminator 2 (1991)

Jenette Goldstein

Lovely, dynamic, and personable brunette beauty Janus Blythe made her extremely strong and commanding presence felt in a choice bunch of high-quality 1970s horror pictures and exploitation features. Blythe achieved her greatest cult popularity with her terrific portrayal of Ruby in Wes Craven's outstanding fright film classic The Hills Have Eyes (1977). Other memorable parts include a small town tramp in Tobe Hooper's excellent Eaten Alive (1976), and a hapless lass who has a harrowing close call with the titular ghoul in the hugely enjoyable The Incredible Melting Man (1977).

After this, Karissa and Katie gained many roles, both together and separate, in film and television. Karissa and Katie's most memorable roles were as villainous twins in both Todd and the Book of Pure Evil and Carrie.

August Kyss is not new to the filming scene but has recently jumped back in with both feet. In 2 short years she has become Ontario's Scream Queen and is on her way to taking over the world.
